

2010 CPRA Awards and Recognition Program

Canadians enjoy the best quality of life in the world, due in great part to the success of the recreation and parks delivery system. The CPRA Awards and Recognition program celebrates innovative contributions of the field that continue to benefit the lives of Canadians and their communities.

Do you know a person or organization deserving special recognition for outstanding achievements in parks and recreation services? Make sure their work is celebrated by nominating them for a CPRA Award!

How & Who to Nominate

The CPRA Awards and Recognition Program process encourages as many nominations as possible. Nominating is easy! Just decide which award best suits your nominee, fill out the nomination form and send it to CPRA along with the information requested. As a nominator, you must be a member of CPRA. Nominees or applicants do not have to be CPRA members.
